

C-482 No. 132 of 2004

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

Heard Sri P.M.N.Singh learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the record.

The petitioner has come up with the allegation that the required copies of the statements were not supplied under section 207 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. In the case of another co-accused the learned Sessions Judge has passed a favourable order on 1-3-2004 whereby it had been directed that the accused shall be supplied the copies of the statements of those witnesses whose statements were recorded subsequently by the I.O. Similar direction need to be given in regard to the petitioner-accused also and therefore without going into the merit of the case as against the impugned order of the revision passed by the learned Sessions Judge, it is directed that the copies of the statements which have not been supplied to the petitioner accused shall be prepared and be given to him as is the case with the co-accused Gurvender Singh within 15 days from the date of the receipt of the copy of this order.

With this direction the petition is finally disposed of.
